NEWS RELEASE

SCIENTIFIC DESIGN COMPANY, INC. ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF NEW PRESIDENT AND CEO

LITTLE FERRY, NEW JERSEY ----- March 18, 2013:

Scientific Design Company, Inc. (SDCI) today announced that Mr. Paul Lamb has been appointed the new President and Chief Executive Officer of SDCI effective March 15, 2013, succeeding Mr. Darren Adams. Scientific Design is a leading process technology company providing licensing, basic engineering and catalysts for its proprietary processes.

Paul Lamb has broad leadership experience in the chemical industry and in the catalyst business. He started his industrial career in 1978 and has held various management positions at UOP Inc. and Engelhard Corp., now part of BASF SE. From 2006 to 2009 Mr. Lamb served as Group Vice President, Mobile Emissions at BASF Corporation at Iselin, NJ. Since 2010 he has been President of Ogden Consulting LLC, a consulting firm offering strategic and business development consulting services to the chemical and allied products industries.

Mr. Adams successfully steered the Company since 2006, resulting in strong growth, process technology leadership and development of high performance catalysts. Mr. Adams will continue his successful career in a position within the Clariant group. Clariant, together with Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC), jointly own SDCI.
